

ATTENTION KIDS: (PAPER WANTS INTERNS)

Yes, it's true. We are once again heading out to LA to bring our own brand of cultural cool to the west coast and create our 2nd annual LA issue!

Beginning November 7th, PAPER will be in and around the LA area for a week, working on our February issue devoted to Los Angeles. We'd love your help in pulling it all together.

As of now, we are enlisting interns to help with a variety of projects and tasks in Los Angeles during the week of Nov. 7-12.

If you are interested, and live in the LA area, please e-mail weLOVEla@papermag.com. SUBJECT LINE: INTERN

We look forward to hearing from you.
